

Private Day School

School Profile

Chapel Field was founded in 1985 as a Christian College Preparatory High School. The 100 acre campus is nestled in the rolling hills of the beautiful Hudson Valley in New York State, in the heart of the world's top academic and cultural establishments: one hour from New York City, near Harvard, Yale and Princeton Universities. Chapel Field is accredited by the National Association of Private Schools, and incorporated under the University of the State of New York. A member of several athletic leagues and music associations, Chapel Field has been recognized numerous times for outstanding performances in both athletics and music. The school also offers many cultural opportunities and experiences running from Boston to New York City and Washington DC.
