

Private Day School

School Profile

Colorado Springs Christian School is a superior place for students! In addition to a rigorous academic program, young people are encouraged to explore the fine arts and athletic opportunities, to develop strong character and values while maintaining a focus on meaningful lifelong service. Getting involved and volunteering your time to help others will help each individual experience the benefits of a close community. Students will love and pursue truth, recognize beauty in all its forms, live virtuously, reason and problem solve logically, read insightfully, write incisively, speak persuasively, be physically fit and serve wholeheartedly. International students will find the school to be a challenging and rewarding path to future academic success in the United States.
