School Profile

Menaul School is an independent co-educational, college-preparatory school that has been dedicated to the holistic education of children from New Mexico and all over the globe for over 100 years. Emphasis is placed on preparing its students for success in college, teaching them to engage the world as lifelong learners and ethical leaders in service to the community. Menaul provides an excellent education in a secure, caring environment. The curriculum is college preparatory, challenging, and 88% of the upper-school teachers have post-graduate degrees. From dramatic plays to plot analysis, magnets to molecular theory, basic computer skills to advanced networking, Menaul School's carefully crafted curriculum advances in complexity as students master skills and mature in intellectual sophistication.
