

Private Day School

School Profile

Established in 1934 and situated on a beautiful 84 acre campus; Rocky Hill School is an independent coeducational college preparatory day school for students in Preschool to Grade 12 and postgraduate. RHS focus on innovative teaching and an interactive educational experience that prepares students to become leaders and lifelong learners. Students find their voices through debate around the Harkness table and are prepared for real world scenarios through discussion based classes. This strong academic preparation shines through in the high SAT average of 1760. The Flynn Academic Center was built in 2004 completed with state-of-the-art technology. The school welcomes international students and about 10% of the student body comes from different countries around the world.
