

Private Day School

School Profile

Saint Edward's School, founded upon the independent Episcopal school tradition, is a co-educational, college preparatory school committed to educational excellence. To empower each child to reach his or her full potential, the School community promotes an environment of advocacy, challenges the whole student, cultivates moral courage and spiritual growth, and inspires a lifelong passion for learning. The beautiful campus comprises 33 acres and it is the only independent school on the Treasure Coast with frontage on the Indian River Lagoon complete with a dock and a small fleet of boats. The facilities include an 800 seat Performing Arts Center, an Aquatic Complex, two gymnasiums, a Fine Arts Center with music and art studios, two libraries, playing fields, and science labs and classroom spaces.
