

Private Day School

School Profile

Saint Peter-Marian (SPM) is a co-educational Catholic college preparatory Junior and Senior High School located in a residential neighborhood on the northwest side of Worcester. Fully accredited by the New England Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges, SPM was founded as a result of the merging of Saint Peter's High School and Marian High School in 1976. Today SPM enjoys an enrollment of nearly 500 students. The separate and distinct facilities within the campus are designed to meet the specific needs of both Junior and Senior high students. Graduates attend some of the country's finest colleges and universities. Distinguished alumni maintain leadership roles in the community and serve as an integral part of the school's heritage.
