

Private Boarding School

School Profile

Archbishop Riordan High School is an urban, Catholic high school for boys. The school respects the integrity of each individual as a unique human being. Archbishop Riordan engages its students in a process of education, which promotes each student's personal growth and development in the intellectual, spiritual, social, and physical aspects of his life. The school serves the needs of students through the academic program. At the program's core is a rigorous and challenging curriculum which blends a classical liberal education with the skills and knowledge needed to navigate contemporary times. The curriculum is designed to develop a student's understanding of the key topics and issues in each academic department. Students are trained to think critically and express themselves clearly.
