

Private Boarding School

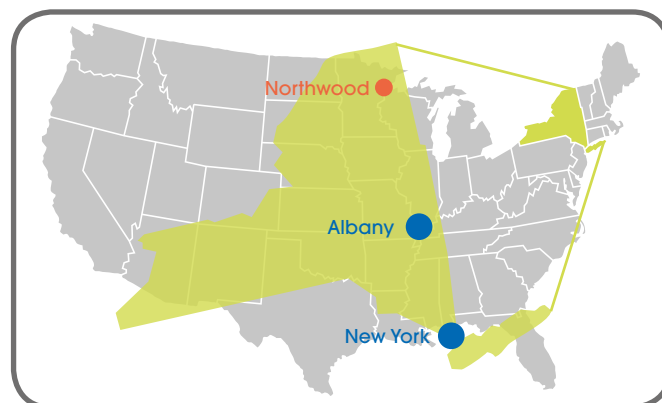

School Profile

Founded in 1905, Northwood School is an independent coeducational boarding and day school for grades 9-12/PG. The campus is located in Lake Placid, New York, in the heart of the Adirondack Mountains. Home to the 1932 and 1980 Olympic Winter Games, the village of Lake Placid offers a unique learning environment with a distinctive international ambience. The School is about 2 hours from; Albany, New York; and Burlington, Vermont. The 85-acre campus is nestled in the heart of the village and at the base of Cobble Mountain. The Adirondack Mountains surround the village and are a beautiful backdrop for the School.

Northwood offers students a unique combination of rigorous academic preparation, wilderness appreciation, and athletic competition.
