

Private Boarding School

School Profile

With its roots stretching back to 1796, Oakwood Friends School offers a challenging college preparatory education to students. The school is located in the scenic Hudson Valley, approximately 130 km north of New York City. The school offers advanced placement classes in nine subjects, fourteen interscholastic sports teams and 17 classes in the arts. Oakwood Friends School is a Quaker school. Quaker values stressing integrity, equality, peace, community and simplicity ensure that each student is valued for the individual person she/he is and that each student learns to appreciate helping others in the school community, as well as in the wider community. For students who want to study in a peaceful and secure environment yet have access to the big city of New York, this is the perfect choice for international and domestic students alike!
