

Private Boarding School

School Profile

Ojai Valley School is an independent boarding and day school for nearly 300 students on two campuses in beautiful Ojai, California. The high school provides students in grades 9 - 12 a program of strong academics, fine arts, performing arts, sports, outdoor education, environmental studies, equestrian, and character development.

Dedicated teachers and dorm parents create a warm, supportive environment that is conducive to learning. With their support and guidance, OVS students are encouraged to explore their interests, know themselves, and develop an appreciation and respect for other people on a global scale. By the time they graduate, they will have developed the academic strength, character, and self-confidence to meet life's future challenges.
