

Private Boarding School

School Profile

Perkiomen School is a traditional and structured co-educational college preparatory boarding and day school. Founded by a descendant of a Schwenkfelder immigrant in 1875, Perkiomen School has a philosophy focused on creating an effective environment for individual growth and for the development of personal ethics. Perkiomen admits students in grades five through twelve and offers a year for postgraduate students - embracing diversity, and actively pursuing students and faculty from many neighborhoods of the US and from around the world. Located in greater Philadelphia, Perkiomen is convenient to some of the nation's finest cultural and educational institutions, great shopping and entertainment, and beautiful countryside with skiing, mountain biking, kayaking, hiking, and much more.
