

Private Day School

School Profile

Verde Valley School is an international college preparatory boarding and day school offering the International Baccalaureate Diploma Program as its sole curriculum. It is dedicated to the highest ethical and academic standards while teaching languages and cross-cultural communication, anthropology and responsibility, biology and environmentalism, and the arts through self expression. VVS was founded in 1948 by two Harvard-trained anthropologists. Today, about half of the student body is comprised of international students from 17 countries. VVS offers a truly global educational experience. The beautiful and temperate environment allows a year-round outdoor sports program that includes horse-back riding, mountain biking, rock climbing, cross-country running, soccer, and golf.
