

Royal Russell School – Croydon, UK

Royal Russell is an exceptional school. Set in beautiful parkland our girls and boys can enjoy their learning with first rate facilities and highly qualified teachers. Founded in 1853 this Independent school is proud to have Her Majesty the Queen as Patron. With a unique blend of traditional buildings and the very latest technology our pupils excel both academically and in the host of co-curricular opportunities on offer.

Our Junior School and Senior School are situated together on the estate providing the key benefit of educational continuity from age 3 to 18. Boarding in the Senior School adds another dimension, from which all pupils benefit.

Academic Life:

There is a strong commitment to the care and nurturing of the individual in both their academic achievement and personal development. Not only is the school academically ambitious but also academically sensitive to the needs to each student- the most talented are accelerated and anyone who is struggling is given extra help and support.

Our school is a delightful mix of busy, enthusiastic and ambitious young people who have a real sense of community.

Life as a Boarder:

The home-from-home environment offers privacy, safety and opportunity. With comfortable and relaxing boarding houses students will feel a sense of community and care. Arrangements at the weekend are flexible to meet the needs of the students- those who remain on campus can continue to enjoy the school's superb facilities and an exciting range of activities, including: Aerobics, Archery, Badminton, Basketball coaching, Brighton visits, Cinema, Dance, Football coaching, Golf, Ice Skating, Japanese lessons, Martial arts, Paintball, Sailing, Weight training, Windsurfing.

Sports and Activities:

Sport thrives at the school due to the extensive playing fields, indoor swimming pool and new indoor sports complex. A wide variety of sports and activities are on offer with students being able to join school teams or just play for fun. Whatever the level of ability the school encourages students to be healthy and active!
