

Sedbergh School - Cumbria, UK

Founded in 1525 Sedbergh has an impressive history, excellent facilities and a host of famous alumni. Like all top schools our pupils expect to move on to the leading Universities and our Music, Sport and Drama is among the best in the country. However, what makes Sedbergh School outstanding is our ability to prepare exceptional young people for Life.

Our unique features - from our spectacular location to high level of pastoral care, and our commitment to nurturing individual talents and aspirations - help all our pupils to become spirited, well-rounded young adults with the confidence to make the most of Life.

Academic Excellence:

Teaching and learning is at the core of academic opportunity and success at Sedbergh School. Our ethos is one of challenge, innovation and inclusivity. We achieve excellent exam results and are proud that the majority of our pupils go to their first choice university.

By creating academic opportunities beyond the classroom, we give Sedbergh boys and girls the edge when it comes to competing for places at top universities both in the UK and around the world.

Sport at Sedbergh:

Sedbergh School has an international reputation for its sporting achievements and the School also takes great pride in offering a broad range of sporting opportunities for all pupils, whatever their aptitudes and abilities.

Both boys' and girls' sport embraces 'Excellence' and 'Sport for All' – the two are not mutually exclusive and co-exist comfortably, enabling Sedbergh pupils to benefit from a huge variety of sporting opportunities.

Boarding at Sedbergh:

Arguably, boarding is what Sedbergh does better than any other school in the country. We take the view that everyone performs best when they feel cared for, confident and relaxed; therefore we make sure our pastoral care is second to none, and have established a successful House system to foster a caring environment, and create smaller, tight-knit, cross-year communities within the School.
