

Private Boarding School

School Profile

La Lumiere is a traditional coeducational 9th through 12th grade, college preparatory boarding and day school located an hour east of Chicago on a spectacular 144-acre campus.

La Lumiere's students come from across the United States and the world to become part of a school community that is truly unique. With a student to teacher ratio of eight to one and an average class size of eleven, La Lumiere students enjoy a level of personalized attention that simply does not exist at larger schools. Academic excellence characterizes the entire curriculum and helps to prepare students to attend some of the best colleges in the country. La Lumiere School seeks to enroll highly motivated, intellectually curious students interested in an exceptional college preparatory experience and a personalized approach to education.
