

Private Boarding School

School Profile

Marianapolis Preparatory School, an independent, Catholic day and boarding school for grades 9-12, offers a wide range of honors and advanced placement courses for students of all faiths. Students are exposed to a plethora of opportunities, including extracurricular activities, cultural trips abroad, the chance to hold leadership positions and L.E.A.P. Week. Marianapolis is at the forefront of technology in and outside of the classroom, with its 1:1 iPad program and its Summer Session Online, where students can take classes from the comfort of their own home anywhere in the world. Marianapolis students compete on champion athletic teams; develop fine and performing art talents, and serve the local community, all while preparing to attend the best colleges and universities.
